

Terry Tosh is retired and enjoys riding his bicycle around the Bay Area and reading mystery and comedy novels. He occasionally takes time out to pen musings and experiment in a variety of styles of poetry.

His work Writings Of A Scatterbrain can be found at https://www.bookemon.com/book_read_flip.php?book_id=764115)

Terry and Anita Tosh (his wife of 45+ years) joined FAW together in May of 2017. They are residents of Sunnyvale, and were invited to the club by member Jan Small, after meeting on a cruise to Hawaii.

The Toshes have 2 Daughters and 5 grandchildren, and 2 schnoodles, Mitzi and Max. They all share the same home with his eldest daughter and son- in-law, and their family along with their 2 cats, Belle and Primrose (Prim).
